FOCUS ON... ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST

In the understanding of the Early Church Fathers, John the Baptist was regarded as endowed with grace from before his birth. Hence, the Church has always kept the observance of the date of his birth – on 24th June - with greater solemnity than that of his death. Indeed, the biblical account of John the Baptist, son of Elizabeth and Zechariah, begins even before his birth and we are told in Chapter 1 of St. Luke's Gospel that, when Elizabeth heard the greeting of her cousin Mary, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. Furthermore, the Good News of the Gospel of Jesus Christ is related in all four Gospels as beginning with the ministry of John the Baptist. It seems that his role was understood by the Gospel writers to be akin to that of the Old Testament prophets, most especially in encouraging the people of God to live lives worthy of their calling and in anticipation of the imminent appearance of the Anointed Messiah who would bring into being the Kingdom of God. John is therefore the forerunner of the Lord as a lamp which went ahead of the true light and who, as Saint John the Evangelist tells us, bore witness to the light so that all might believe through him. Indeed, his is the voice announced by the prophet Isaiah: "A voice cries out in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the Lord. Make straight his paths". Rabanus Maurus, Archbishop of Mainz in the 9th Century, writes: Let us too, prepare a way for the Lord who is to come into our hearts. Let us remove the barriers of sin by confession and repentance; let us straighten the paths of our life which for too long have been undirected and devious; let us pave the way of true faith with good works. Let us rid ourselves of all arrogance and lift high our fainting hearts. Then, when all is in order, smoothed, and brought into harmony, we shall see the salvation of God as he is, for "his home is in peace and his dwelling in Zion" (Psalm 76:2).

PRAYER CHAIN PRAYER FOR THIS WEEK

(THIS SUNDAY THE INTERCESSIONS WILL BE LED BY JAMES NISBET)

Lord, give us continued strength as we pass through the struggles of this mortal life and let us be thankful for the guidance we receive to help us on our earthly voyage. As our Saviour taught us, may we develop resilience from our sufferings in the knowledge that He gave his life for us so that we may be absolved from sin. Through Jesus Christ our risen Lord, Amen.

May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us evermore. Amen.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER FOR TRINITY 4
