FOCUS ON... THE BREAD OF LIFE

The Gospel of Saint John shows a clear intention to reveal who Jesus truly is, and not just what He did. John opens his account with an explanation of the divine nature of Jesus, the Word made Flesh. In chapter 6, he focuses on one of the miracles of Jesus, and what it means. Because Jesus was renowned for performing miracles of healing and teaching the Scriptures with authority, there would often be crowds of people following him. We are told that Jesus took five loaves of bread and two fish and fed thousands of people with it, with twelve baskets left over. That same night, Jesus walked on water. The next day, those same crowds gather again to be fed. Jesus then offered them salvation; eternal nourishment rather than just temporary sustenance. "Truly, truly, I say to you, you are seeking me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For on him God the Father has set his seal... For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day" (John 6:26-27, 40). By putting their faith in Him, then, they would have eternal life. He also spoke to them of the manna the Father gave their ancestors in the wilderness after leaving Egypt. And he then said to them, "I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. And the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh" (John 6:51). The culmination of this symbol of bread as signifying the saving nature of Jesus comes at the Last Supper. "Now as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and after blessing it broke it and gave it to the disciples, and said, 'Take, eat; this is my body'" (Matthew 26:26). Here, then, Jesus explicitly spells out the nature of His upcoming crucifixion and His role in restoring people to a right relationship with God for eternity.
