- Holy Communion will continue in one kind only for the time being and will be administered from the area in front of the chancel step.
- The Peace will continue for the time being to be observed discreetly and following social distancing protocols.

FOCUS ON..... THE EPIPHANY

The Three Magi, the Three Wise Men or Three Kings, are said to have been distinguished foreigners who visited Jesus after his birth, bearing gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. They are key figures in traditional accounts of the Nativity celebrations of Christmas and an important part of Christian tradition, not least as representing different ethnicities within humanity. The Gospel of Matthew is the only one of the four Canonical Gospels to mention the Magi. Matthew reports that they came "from the east" to worship the "king of the Jews". The Gospel account never mentions the number of Magi. But most western Christian denominations have traditionally assumed them to have been three in number, based on the statement that they brought three gifts. But it is quite conceivable that they were part of a larger travelling party. Their identification as Kings in later Christian writings is regarded as probably linked to Isaiah 60:1–6, which refers to "kings [coming] to the brightness of your dawn"... "bearing gold and frankincense". Further identification of the Magi as Kings may be due to a text from Psalm 72:11, "May all kings fall down before him". Gold is associated with royalty and was a gift given to Kings in ancient times. Frankincense is a type of incense burned by Priests in the course of prayer and worship, both in the religious rituals of ancient times and in Christian Churches of the Catholic and Orthodox traditions. Myrrh is used as an embalming ointment and as a gift to the infant Jesus symbolises that, in common with many of the Prophets of old, this child was destined to suffer and to die. The mysterious gifts of the Three Magi therefore symbolise the three-fold roles of the Messiah as King, Priest and Prophet. The word "epiphany" means "manifestation" or "striking appearance". It is often associated with the Greek theophaneia, meaning "vision of God". Clearly, the visit of the Magi to the infant Christ in Bethlehem was indeed an Epiphany, a life-changing encounter with the divine presence.

PRAYER CHAIN PRAYERS

(This Sunday Service's Intercessions Led by PAT RUSHMERE)

Dear Jesus, as You led the Three Kings to You by the light of a star, please draw us ever closer to You by the light of Faith. Help us to desire You as ardently as they did. Give us the grace to overcome all the obstacles that keep us far from You. May we, like them, have something to give You when we appear before You, Amen.
